

2006 Beta Alpha Psi Annual Meeting Student Presentations

Six concurrent sessions at the 2006 BAP annual meeting in Washington, D.C. will provide an opportunity for ten-minute student presentations sharing good ideas/practices with other chapters. Each of these sessions will include up to four student presentations, followed by an interactive discussion among all session participants.

Thanks to all the chapters that took time at the end of a semester to develop a presentation proposal. We received 44 proposals and accepted 23. The presentations accepted for the national conference are as follows:

Energizing Your Chapter: Volunteerism – It's not just about the points

California State University-Fullerton: Collaboration with the Centers for Excellence

Grand Valley State University: Helping Stop Hunger and Homelessness

Oakland University: A Portfolio of Service

Texas State University: Reaching Out to Holmes High

Energizing Your Chapter: Fundraising

Ball State University: Bowl-a-Rama-It's Not Just About the Cool Shoes

California State University-Fresno: Could a Raffle be in Your Chapter's Future?

University of Texas at El Paso: Campus-based Fundraising-You Can't Always Ask the Firms

Energizing Your Chapter: Reaching Potential Members

Howard University: Accounting Awareness Week

University of North Texas: Moving Your Chapter into the New Millennium

University of Sydney: Starting from Scratch-Building the First Chapter in the Southern Hemisphere

University of Wyoming: Branding a Mark on Potential Members

Energizing Your Chapter: Social Activities (Chapter activities and Cooperative activities with other student organizations)

Grand Valley State University: Focusing on Diversity and Inclusiveness

The Ohio State University: The Golf Outing-Reliance on a Single Fundraiser

University of Hawaii-Manoa: Joint Venture and Business Club Olympics-What Would You do to Network?

Western Washington University: Promoting Cooperative Success through Group Projects and Social Events

Keeping in Touch: Develop a communications strategy for your chapters members, alumni and firms

Fort Lewis College: Our Chapter's Road Show in Denver

SUNY-Buffalo: Energizing Your Chapter's Website

University of Denver: The Use of Quarterly Calendars and Newsletters

University of New Orleans: Virtual Forums-Creating an Interactive Network Among Chapter Members, Alumnae and Employers

Leading Your Chapter: Treasurers

Southeastern Louisiana University: SOX and Your Chapter-Simple Systems for Financial Control

University of Iowa: A Customized Financial Reporting System

University of North Carolina-Charlotte: Start Fast-Treasurers must be Ready to Start the Semester

Western Washington University: Segregation of Duties is not Just for Large Organizations

NOTE: Each of the above sessions will include time for discussion among all participants.

Thanks to all the chapters who submitted proposals. The competition for presentation opportunities resulted in the selection of presentations that should be both practical and creative. I look forward to seeing everyone in DC.